

Name	Applying As	Submitted by	Description	Funding Requested	Funding Granted
Act Like A Lady Mentoring Program	Community Group	Latoria Marcel Washington	All in Together We Can is focused on providing awareness to the community about antibullying, anti-harassment, and conflict resolution through training and activities. This project will conduct self-defense classes for youth, training on cyberbullying, conflict resolution and conflict de-escalation. We will conduct several peace walks and harassment prevention programs.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Brethren Inc.	Non-Profit Organizations	Carol Knight	Moving To Extraordinary is a sequence of personal/professional development workshops designed to promote self-awareness, build self-esteem, aid in overcoming fear and various obstacles in life, foster positive character building, and aid in identifying our unique personality traits and niche. These programs are instrumental in helping participants to plan/pursue their most desired goals & dreams.	$ 5,000.00	5000.00
DCR Community	Community Watch	Tara Whitfield	The purpose of our project is to recovery the poverty mindset of our residents and restore positively to a community which has been suppressed. Our goal is to make our community a safer, cleaner and a more pleasant place for people to live and visit. The grant can also help our community watch program in bringing out resources that will help our citizens be productive in the community.	$ 2,500.00	1500.00
Dr. Parker- Microgrant	Individuals	INNERGY Educational Co., LLC	INNERGY education curriculum teaches self-awareness, study skills, sociology, psychology, and the star, PEACE Education to students or any individual for personal growth, academic	$ 5,000.00	1500.00
EB LYFE	Individuals	Dr. Latoya M Parker	As a documented and certified trainer in crisis prevention de-escalation services, mental health first aid and OPR suicide prevention, providing certification programs that introduce individuals to the risk factors, signs and symptoms and warning signs of crisis and mental health issues. This 8 hour evidence based certification course will equip our community with crisis de-escalation tools.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
F.E.L.P	Individuals	Quontico Conley-Jackson	This project is a continuation of our previous wellness project designed to foster mental health and wellness during a time where everyone's mental health is a stake. It is our goal to continue to help both youth and adults navigate this process by helping them find their inner voice, provide anger management training/ coping mechanism, substance use and prevention and to help others.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
Fayetteville-RaeFord CARES Mentoring Movement	Non-Profit Organizations	Christen Miller	Mobile Mentoring Initiative. We seek to continue providing Mobile tutoring and study assistance to at-risk youth and community outreach services. We have revised our program to include a well-developed mentoring curriculum designed to empower our youth and their families. We have established a partnership with the Reclaiming Futures program lead by CommuniCare and Judge Toni King.	$ 5,000.00	5000.00
Fontashia Johnson	Individuals	Fontashia Johnson	The purpose of the project is to provide Mindfulness & Restorative Practices for low and moderate income, ethnically diverse children and teens who face multiple challenges, to learn various mindfulness and restorative exercises that will help build relationships, reduce stress, engage them in learning, motivate change, and reduce crime.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Girl Power	Community Group	Cassandra Owens	The purpose of the proposed initiative is to help girls gain the abilities they need to help reverse the rate of female victimization. Great emphasis will be placed on empowering the young ladies to avoid negativity, identify bullying behaviors, learn reporting protocol, practice bullying prevention techniques, and developing communication and mediation skills to work through and resolve conflict.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Greater Life of Fayetteville (GLoF)	Non-Profit Organizations	Georganna Pinckney	This is an on-going project that serves the disadvantage population of youth "at risk" and their families through People in Need (PIN) program. It is designed to help defuse mental, social and financial poverty. Poverty is a major concern to high levels of crime and dysfunctional families in our community.	$ 5,000.00	5000.00
green house project cdc inc	Community Watch	Costella Green	Our program is designed to address the needs of families in the community by discussing crime prevention ideas. The objective of achieving this goal is presenting a safe environment within our community gardens. The garden helps present a safe atmosphere and freedom to release any anxieties one might exhibit toward crime.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
JaiG Youth Foundation	Community Group	Dionsha Ousufamungiri	JaiG Youth Foundation is about being proactive to promote protective factors in young people. Complements efforts to prevent risky behaviors and attitudes in youth and supports efforts that work to address negative behaviors. It acknowledges and further develops (or strengthens) youth assets. We help enable youth to thrive and flourish and prepare them for a healthy, happy thriving life adulthood.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
Kass	Non-Profit Organizations	Pammie Parker	Reading is fundamental. Reading develops the brain, provides a window into the world and helps students do better in all school subjects. This program will assist students with attaining abilities in word recognition strategies and phonemic awareness. Students will also be provided with the tools to gain and master comprehension skills and strategies.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Kia Love-The Kia Love Project	Individuals	Kia D Jones	The Kia Love Project is designed to educate local women — especially at-risk and low-income women and youth — about developing "urban homesteading" skills such as gardening, composting, sewing, knitting and interior design and turning those skills into small business opportunities.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Life Changing Mentoring, INC.	Individuals	Bryan Tillman	LCM is an innovative program designed to provide a safe place for young men to talk about what is really occurring in their lives, as well as interact with male mentors who listen, believe in them & assist them in making better choices. This is accomplished through group mentoring that includes behavior modeling, discussions, social activities & self-evaluation.	$ 5,000.00	1500.00
Matthee B. Collins Temple #1351	Civic Associations	Dr. Tracey G. Jackson	Fayetteville Thrives for Successful Communities (Thrives) 2023 comprises four components that build upon the previous grant and include 1) community organizing, 2) training, 3) community resources and networking, and 4) community conversations. Community organizers incorporate needs assessment/surveys to help identify resources that can be targeted to communities in need.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
My Future is Brite Leadership Program	Community Group	Michael Gales	Teen Table Talk will create a platform for youth the shed light on various topics that adversely affect our youth in society. This platform would give youth from various backgrounds, cultures, and socioeconomic statuses the opportunity to express how various factors in society affect their daily lives. Lastly, this will help youth aid in a solution to the violent factors they may face.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
Rhonda's Rainbow of Dance	Community Group	Rhonda Bright	Rulu's Grove is a community group that has thrived in its service to the community through dance and feeding the less fortunate. There are few opportunities for families to do something fun and learn together. We are offering mentorship and healthy eating lessons with our dance classes for this program. We are so excited for the outcome of Tier 1 and want to build on what we are doing.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
Seabrook/Broadell Neighborhood Community Watch Group Watch	Community Watch	Cynthia Leeks	This initiative is designed to increase membership, increase community safety and increase positive interactions between residents, business owners and City Departments. Purchasing a membership management platform will allow increased and effective communication. "Operation Lookout" will strategically place RHG cameras in the community with insight from FPD and address community safety.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
Tawanda Giles	Individuals	Tawanda Giles	We will be targeting single working mothers or mothers in school. There will be an emphasis on financial literacy, job searching & life skills. The mothers will participate in a 6 Weeks program that will meet once a month. The program will include workshops, guest speakers from community leaders, resource information.	$ 1,500.00	1500.00
The Pedestal	Individuals	Dr. Lathanda Nicole Shaw	The Pedestal is a foundation that sets out to uplift women's self-esteem and build them into leaders not just in business but in their own lives. This will be accomplished through workshops, outings, speaker engagements, and networking.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
The Two-Six Project	Non-Profit Organizations	Grant Bennett	As a part of our Emerging Leaders Program, we have partnered with various groups in Atlanta to create an exposure opportunities for our students in Atlanta. Students would visit the Atlanta University Center, Google, Microsoft, State Farm Arena, and multiple historic museums throughout their 3 day experience. Our goal is to take 40 the underrepresented students in our program on the trip!	$ 5,000.00	5000.00
United Ministries in Christ Church	Non-Profit Organizations	Derrick Montgomery	In 2023 United Ministries in Christ Church initiated a program that linked LGBTQIA+ individuals and others who had no insurance but needed and wanted counseling services. To further assess the whole needs of a person and link to community resources. We want to expand our service to those who engage by meeting additional needs identified.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00
Zenaida Cranford Mentor Mentee Mentorship Program	Individuals	Zenaida Cranford	I have a teen mentorship program for teen girls ages 12-17. The program has been built to prevent teen girls' RunAways in our city. Because our program is based on positive intervention, this grant will help with a series of personal development workshops and activities that will contribute to the reduction of such unfortunate events.	$ 2,500.00	2500.00